

Debris Cap Keeps Riser Pipes Clean

The Debris Cap is a cup shaped polypropylene device that is placed in the upper end of a valve riser pipe. It keeps dirt and debris out of the riser pipe and from collecting around the valve stem. It eliminates the periodic need to clean out valve riser pipes to maintain access to valves, and prevents valve malfunctions. It has applications for water, sewer, gas or other similar types of pipe installation.

Contact: Robert D. Gofonia
Organization: City of Phoenix
Address: 1034 East Madison
City: Phoenix
State/Province: AZ
Postal Code: 85013
Country: USA
Phone No: 602-495-2050
FAX: 602-495-3670
URL:
Email: