

CCTV Assisted Crane Operation

The CCTV Assisted Crane Operation is a technique for use in construction situations where crane operators do not have visual contact with the primary staging areas due to crane location and/or structure configuration. It consists of the installation of a security camera focused on the staging area and a monitor in the crane operator's cab. The use of this technique enhances safety, minimizes radio communication between the crane operator and ground personnel, and increases productivity.

Contact: Larry G. Eastep---Not Current Organization: Lott Constructors, Inc.
Address: 3500 South Gessner
City: Houston
State/Province: TX
Postal Code: 77063
Country: USA
Phone No: 713-266-0099
FAX:
URL:
Email: